4. TARGET AUDIENCE

Post-graduate Professors and Students and (both, Lato Sensu – specialization – and Stricto Sensu in master's and doctoral degrees); Specialists, Masters, Doctors, PHD, Researchers, University Professors, Judges, Representatives of the Prosecution Office, Lawyers and other professionals of the legal career can submit their articles, and, in general, people who are engaged, in the professional scope, in any fields or subjects of Law, and are interested in showing their original scientific studies on any of the themes proposed. The articles can be sent according to the following curricular requirements:

- Undergraduate students for exclusive participation as listeners without submitting articles.
- Undergraduate students can submit their articles, as long as they are co-authored with their supervisor (with the possibility of publication only in the CONSINTER book).
- Lato Sensu Postgraduate Students (specializing and specialists).
- Stricto Sensu Postgraduate Students (Master's and Ph.D. students).

The main criterion for publication in the CONSINTER International Law Journal (QUALIS A3) is the author having a Ph.D. title. If he does not have it, his article will be evaluated in the same way and, if approved by the CONSINTER Council, it shall be published in the book Law and Justice.

Observing CONSINTER's basic premise of supporting and promoting scientific and academic production, it is essential to inform that all articles registered, paid for, and originated following the target audience described in this item 4 heading, shall be accepted for analysis and possible publication.

5. DISSEMINATION OF THE LEGAL INVESTIGATION AND PUBLICATION OF THE ARTICLES

Observing the scenario that imposes great difficulties to those interested in publishing their studies and investigation work, CONSINTER comes up with the purpose of contributing to the diffusion of academic studies, publishing them, facilitating their dissemination, in addition to fostering an investigative formation of excellence, and the transfer of knowledge from universities to society.

The articles will be subjected to a selection and approval process by the Editorial Board of CONSINTER, meeting criteria of scientific quality, being the analysis carried out in the double blind review system, according to the requirements by the national and international institutions and agencies of investigation and teaching that evaluate the investigating activity of Post-Graduation.

Thus, in addition to providing visibility to scientific production in official CONSINTER publications, the authors of the approved articles by the CONSINTER Editorial Board shall have:

- a) His/her paper published in the CONSINTER International Law Journal (QUALIS A3) and indexed in the National and International databases of great relevance in the academic world, allowing greater visibility for it, such as Scielo Portugal, Dialnet Google Scholar, Latindex, REDIB, CAPES, LivRe, Sumários.org, Cite Factor, Superior Electoral Court, Virtual Network of Integrated Libraries (RVBI), MIAR and member of Crossref or in the book Law and Justice.
- b) The opportunity to present your scientific article orally, during CONSINTER X Symposium – Universitat de Barcelona to be held from November 15 to 17, 2023, upon payment of an additional cost, which must be made upon registration (see item 13).
- c) The possibility of receiving an international certification.
- d) The opportunity to spread your scientific study, reaching internationally a larger number of people.
- e) The possibility of indexing your article on the JuruáDocs Platform;

- f) The possibility of expanding your network with people of high scientific and academic levels;
- g) The opportunity to seek the transfer of scientific knowledge, which will contribute to the recognition of research activity and international scientific cooperation.

6. INFORMATION

All texts will be evaluated by the double-blind review system, respecting the authors' anonymity.

At the sovereign criterion by the CONSINTER Editorial Board, some articles will be selected to be published in the periodic edition of the journal "Revista Internacional CONSINTER de Direito (QUALIS A3)", with the respective ISSN. This publication will have two editions in Portugal, being one printed, and the other one digital.

The articles that have not been selected to the journal "Revista Internacional CONSINTER de Direito (QUALIS A3)", but which have been approved by the Editorial Board, will be published in the official book of "CONSINTER Direito e Justiça", with ISBN register. This publication will have three editions: one printed in Portugal, and two editions in Brazil (one digital and the other one printed).

7. DEADLINES

Applications and articles shall be accepted until April 30, 2023 - see item 13.

8. NOTIFICATION OF APPROVAL

The decision by the CONSINTER Editorial Board on the approval or rejection of the articles submitted will be reported directly to the author by e-mail.

9. REQUIREMENTS

- a) The submission of the scientific paper for analysis is subject to confirmation of registration and payment, at the same time, of all authors and co-authors.
- b) Only articles approved by the CONSINTER Editorial Board will be published.

10. ORAL PRESENTATION

For oral presentations of articles duly registered, paid and approved until April 30, 2023, there will be an additional cost of R$ 690.00 (six hundred and ninety reais), in case of acquisition of the presentation separately (see item 13). In this case, the author/co-author may present it orally during the X International Law Symposium CONSINTER 2023 – Universitat de Barcelona to be held from November 15 to 17, 2023.

11. DECLARATION OF ARTICLE ACCEPTANCE

The declaration of acceptance of the scientific article will be issued, as long as the article is approved, by the CONSINTER, upon request to the e-mail contact@consinter.org.

14. ABOUT THE PUBLICATIONS

The framework of the evaluated and accepted articles for the purpose of publication in Europe by the Editorial Juruá Lda., and in Brazil by Juruá Ltda will follow the following criteria:

I. FOR THE JOURNAL “REVISTA INTERNACIONAL CONSINTER DE DIREITO” – QUALIS A3

According to the requirements of national and international agencies of investigation and teaching that evaluate the investigative and academic activity of Post-Graduation, the CONSINTER Executive Coordination, at the best of their judgment, will select a certain amount of articles approved that will be awarded with the Publication in the Journal “Revista Internacional do CONSINTER de Direito” QUALIS A3, with ISSN from Portugal. Also:

- a) For each article selected for the journal “Revista Internacional do CONSINTER de Direito” QUALIS A3, a number of specific and unique register in the DOI (Digital Object Identifier) system will be assigned.
- b) A register in the DOI (Digital Object Identifier) system will also be assigned for the journal “Revista Internacional do CONSINTER de Direito” QUALIS A3.

NOTE 1: In the face of the technical rules, for the purpose of qualification of the journal, only the articles approved in which a least one of the authors and/or author has a doctorate degree will be selected for the journal “Revista Internacional CONSINTER de Direito” (QUALIS A3). The articles properly approved that do not fulfill this requisite will be published in the Book of CONSINTER, corresponding to the event.

NOTE 2: The organizing Committee will be in charge of the nomination and the issue of the journal “Revista Internacional CONSINTER de Direito” (QUALIS A3) in which the approved article will be authorized for publication.

II. FOR THE BOOK “LIVRO DO CONSINTER: DIREITO E JUSTIÇA”

The other articles approved will be awarded with the publication in the book “Livro de Direito e Justiça do CONSINTER”, generating 03 distinct editions: 02 editions in Brazil (one digital and the other printed – ISBN/Brazil) and 01 international printed edition (ISBN/Portugal).

15. RULES OF WRITING — THE ARTICLES SENT MUST FULFILL THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

a) For the article, it is mandatory the adoption of the European Union's Institutional Writing Code (Umberto Eco/EU norm) standards - see item 16. This system is similar to the ABNT norms; however, the use becomes easier (all tabs are commas) and only highlights in italics, never in bold.

NOTE: The article must be submitted with the spelling correction and grammatically.

b) Be original (not published in books, specialized journals, or in the press in general) and present technical–legal property; national and international relevance of the theme approached, wording fluency, grammar correction, and respect to the ethical and scientific aspects.

Note: The texts inserted in documents of restricted circulation at universities will be considered original.

c) Have been produced by students and/or professors of Lato Sensu and/or Stricto Sensu PostGraduation courses, or by Masters, Doctors and Post-Doctors.

d) Works in co-authorship will be accepted, up to the maximum of 3 participants properly registered, and it is mandatory to indicate the percentage of contribution of each author in the article.

e) Be identified with one of the criteria of classification to be informed in the public notice, see item 3;

f) The author (s) that submit the same scientific article (with the same title and content or only having the title changed) for more than one of the fields of Law above mentioned, will have both scientific articles automatically eliminated from the evaluation.

g) Author identification and affiliation: It must appear just below the title, obligatorily in this order: Name, ORCID, Faculty Name, University Name, City, Country, in the format of the example below:

Luiz Antônio¹ - ORCID XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-XXXX, Faculty of Law, University of Lisbon, Lisbon, Portugal.

h) The author's qualification and affiliation must also be included in a footnote:

- maximum 04 lines.
- the current degree or the academic training of the authors at the last levels.
- the name of the Higher Education Institution (college + University, when applicable) to which it is linked, the city, state, country, and ZIP code (Postal code) of the said Institution.
- the email address of the author(s).
- the ORCID number (if you don't have one, ask for it <https://orcid.org/signin>).

Example: Doctoral Student/Doctor/Post-Doctoral Student in Law XXXX by the Faculty of Law XXXX, University XXXXX, city, Country, postal code 1649-014, e-mail xxxxxx@xxxx.com.br, ORCID XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-XXXX.

i) The text must contain a minimum of 15 and a maximum of 25 pages.

j) The pages must be numbered.

- k) Be submitted in Word format in two distinct files, one with and the other without identification, both complete.
- l) For the file without identification it is important for the author to make sure that, in the article's content to be evaluated, there is no information that makes it possible to identify the author or the Institution they are directly or indirectly bound to.
- m) The text must comply with the following characteristics: Times New Roman font; body 12; justified alignment, without syllable separation; 1.5 spacing between lines; 1.5 cm paragraph; do not put special spacing before or after each paragraph; 3 cm for top and left margins, 2 cm for bottom and right; on A4 size paper; explanatory footnotes on the same page where the reference is cited and the References must follow the Technical Standards of the European Union Institutional Writing Code (Norma Umberto Eco/EU) - see item 17;
- n) The text must contain:
- Title in two languages, one of which must be in English.
 - Summary to be indicated following the presentation of the title.
 - Abstract (between 100 and 250 words - peremptorily with 02 languages), one in Portuguese or Spanish and the other necessarily in English.
 - Keywords (between 3 and 10 words) must be indicated in two languages, being an absolute indication in the English language.

Examples:

- If written in Portuguese: The Abstract and the Keywords must be written in Portuguese and English.
 - If written in Spanish: The Abstract and the Keywords must be written in Spanish and English.
 - If written in English: The Abstract and the Keywords must be written in English and in Portuguese.
- o) The author must indicate both in the abstract and the introduction:
- Objective - is a brief description of the study, why it was carried out, and what it proposes.
 - Hypothesis.
 - Methodology used - The method describes how the study was carried out, especially its most important characteristics (e.g., quantitative, qualitative, or multimethod study; description of study participants, instruments, etc.) and data collection and analysis procedures.
 - Results achieved - The results describe the study's main findings, specifically those that respond to the objective of the referred study.
 - In the final considerations - The final considerations consist of the description of the main contributions brought by the study and indications for future studies.
- p) English articles have priority in analysis and publication, as long as one of the authors has a Ph.D.
- q) For every title, subtitle, all of them aligned on the left, there must be a corresponding text.
- r) The text must be written in a clear and objective way, avoiding long-winded and strenuous paragraphs, giving priority to sentences in the direct order, such as subject-predicate – complement.

- s) Texts with figures, illustrations, and/or photographs will not be accepted, except for graphs and tables which are indispensable for the understanding of the work, and compatible with black and white printing, being prohibited the use of graphs and tables if originated from a third party.
- t) Footnotes and bibliographic references: It is mandatory to include the same information in both, as they are carefully verified.
Citations must always be from secure locations, both physical and virtual (see accepted model of the Humberto Eco system in item 16).
Plagiarism or literal copies are not allowed, under penalty of disapproval. The text must be accompanied by the copyright form – according to the model attachment and/or available on the site.
- u) The text must be accompanied by the authorization term for publication – assignment of Copyright/Patrimonial Rights – according to the attached model and/or available on the website. All the articles must be accompanied by the proof of payment of each author and coauthor's registration.
- v) All articles must be accompanied by proof of payment for the registration/submission of the author and co-author.
- w) Noting that CONSINTER is a non-profit institution, the value of the registration/submission subsidizes the publication of articles in the Revista Internacional CONSINTER de Direito (QUALIS A3). The submission/registration fee is individual and exclusive for each author. Therefore, each author must register and pay his/her respective fee.
Ex: For the inclusion of an article in co-authorship with the two authors – it is necessary the registration and payment of the fee for each one of the authors.
- x) An author may send as many articles as he/she wishes, but he/she must pay the registration/submission fee for each one.
- y) Observing the qualification rules, only one article from each author may be released for publication in the Revista Internacional CONSINTER de Direito (QUALIS A3). In case of approval of two or more articles by the same author for the Journal, the evaluation committee, at its best judgment, will choose one for publication in the Journal and the others will be directed for release in the Law and Justice book or in the next issues of the Journal.

→ Articles that do not comply with the above standards will be disqualified

17. ABOUT THE ARTICLE REVIEW

The scientific articles are analyzed by the CONSINTER Editorial Board, formed only by renowned Doctors and Post-Doctors, jurists, Brazilian and foreigners, especially invited. The scientific articles will be evaluated by the double-blind review system, in which two CONSINTER members of the board will evaluate the works without any authorship identification. The assessment of scientific articles by anonymous authors guarantees impartiality of judgment and decreases subjectivity and ideological preferences. This way, authors must avoid direct references to themselves and citations that make it possible to extract its authorship from the reading of the text.

If the scientific article is accepted by one of the CONSINTER members and failed by another, the text, at the suggestion by the Director Council, can be subjected to the assessment by a third party.

- a) The content of the scientific articles is the authors' full responsibility, and after subjected to assessment cannot go through any changes or replacements, except if requested by the Editorial Board;
- b) Plagiarism or the insertion of literal copies are not allowed.

18. EVALUATION CRITERIA

The evaluation will follow the following criteria:

- a) Compliance with registration/submission rules + payment.
- b) Strict compliance with the Rules for writing articles (they must meet the criteria described in item 05 of this document.
- c) Check for plagiarism.
- d) Pertinence, timeliness, and originality of the theme chosen.
- e) Depth in the approach of the theme chosen.
- f) Appropriate methodology for the development of the theme chosen.
- g) Novelty brought by the approach.
- h) Wording quality.
- i) Adequacy of the article to the scope of the Journal.
- j) Compliance with the rules provided in the Notice.
- k) Adequacy of the article to the scope and focus proposed by the Symposium.
- l) Pertinence of the title to the content proposed by the author.
- m) Pertinence of the abstract when describing the aim, theoretical background, methodology, the main results, and conclusions.

- n) Text structure.
- o) Aims.
- p) Theoretical background.
- q) Results/ Discussion.
- r) Final considerations or conclusion.
- s) Merit.
- t) Significant contribution of the work to knowledge advancement.

Significant contribution of the work to knowledge advancement Each one of the criteria above indicated will be measured considering the following variables:

- a) Inadequate;
- b) Regular;
- c) Good
- d) Excellent;

Regarding the principle of impartiality, the decision by the CONSINTER Editorial Board is sovereign and confidential.

19. USE AS BIBLIOGRAPHY:
